

FORMAL RECOGNITION

Gould League's excursion programs, whole school sustainability behavior change programs, interactive websites and publications have been recognized over the years by both national and international organisations.

Here is a selection of our previous awards and achievements:

2001 Allen Strom Eureka Science Award for Environmental Education for the Wildscape website.

2002 Allen Strom Eureka Award for Environmental Education for the innovative Futurescapes website.

2003 EPA Allen Strom Eureka Prize for the Waste Wise Schools Program

2003 Stormwater Industry Association Victoria's (SIAV) Innovation Awards for the Living Water Literacy Kit.

2004 Victorian Coastal Council Awards for Excellence in Education for our marine education programs, holiday programs, books and the Sea for Yourself website

2004 Australian Interactive Multimedia Industry Association Awards – Best Science for Australian Wildlife Cam website

2005 Finalist - Prime Minister's Environmental Award

2005 Education Category, Victoria's Awards for Excellence in Multicultural Affairs with Sunshine North Primary School for Multicultural School Gardens.

2005 Eureka Prize for Sustainability Education for The Victorian Sustainable Schools Pilot Program

2006 Energy Globe Award - The World Award for Sustainability - Youth Category for Waste Wise Schools program, Victoria

2006 Integral Energy Community Award, National Multicultural Marketing Awards for Multicultural School Gardens

2007 Finalist - Premier's Sustainability Awards - Community Category for our suite of programs

2007 Winner - Not for Profit Network Awards - Team Member of the Year for Helen Widdop-Quinton's work developing Schoolgrounds for Learning and Multicultural School Gardens

2008 National Winner - Energy Globe Award - The World Award for Sustainability for Green Schools Program

2008 Finalist - Premier's Sustainability Awards - Community Category for Multicultural School Gardens